It's commendable industry but false economy that lets you toil over the "homemaking" of your little boy's summer clothes. To be sure it was, in a certain sense, necessary in 'former years. The "ready-made" wasn't as dainty as now, and never 🥎 before so strongly made and as cheap as it is here. For example, we sell washable Suits, that will really bear washing, at $1.00 the suit, and you may make your choice from these materials: crash, linen, duck, madras and galatea cloths, and we sell "Little Men's" Negligee Shirts, white or colored, at 45c. Linen Collars, 10c; Percale Shirt Waists, 25c to 45c; Junior Suspenders, 25c; Dandy Belts, 25c, and washable Trousers at 25c. And shopping here's a pleasure. You're never urged to buy, and our children's department is roomy, cool and well lighted.
